Five Facts
You Might Not Know About UC Riverside

1. Transfer Resource Center. The center has computers available for students to use, private rooms for group studying or tutoring, and places for students to relax between classes. Information on child care, off-campus housing and transportation is also available. If you’re a transfer student, full-time counselors are available to advise you on transcripts and prepare you for your transition to UCR.

2. The SEARCH Family Autism Resource Center is the first center in the UC system to focus on education and advocacy for parents who are trying to navigate the maze of autism services, including those who are low-income and Spanish speaking.

3. The Best Value College. UCR was named one of the Princeton Review’s Best Value Colleges (2009) and was lauded for small class sizes, helpful and friendly professors, a diverse student body, and strong pre-medical education.

4. Economic Impact. UC Riverside is Inland Southern California’s only public research university. Its economic contribution to the state of California is over $1 billion through research, teaching and community involvement, for which: Nearly 72 percent of that money is direct and indirect activity benefiting Inland Southern California. Each dollar spent on UCR has a six-fold return.

5. School of Medicine. The first UC medical school to be opened in 40 years is on track to welcome its first 50 students in the fall of 2012 at UCR. In addition, UCR’s Medical and Health Careers Program offers advising toward preparing students for study in Medicine, Dentistry, Optometry, Pharmacy, Physical Therapy, Public Health and Veterinary Medicine, to name just a few.
