AIFS TRANSPORTATION PACKAGE

Participants have the option of purchasing a round-trip ticket for the flight arranged through AIFS. Participants choosing this option should note the following restrictions: Tickets purchased from AIFS are exclusively on scheduled airlines (not charters). They are not endorsable to another carrier. Flights are not necessarily direct or non-stop, and frequent flyer miles are not applicable. The AIFS Transportation Package includes round-trip ground transportation from the airports in Europe to your accommodations on the regularly scheduled program dates. AIFS will book flights on the dates indicated on this application only.

Participants wishing to purchase the Transportation Package must notify AIFS in writing by Friday, June 14, 2013. Participants wishing to cancel from the flight must notify AIFS in writing by Wednesday, July 17, 2013. Cancellation penalties will apply. Tickets are non-refundable after this date.

Students may choose between two return flight dates. Changes made to this date after you’ve applied will incur a $50 fee per change. All changes must be received in writing by AIFS. Students returning on the alternate return date of Friday, November 29, are responsible for their own accommodations after Friday, November 15, and for their own airport transfers.

AIFS Airfare Regulations: Return must be to original U.S. departure point. Tickets are subject to airline availability. No refunds are available for any unused portion of ticket. Tickets cannot be rerouted, and stopovers are not permitted. Once in London participants may be able to change their return date, but only if that date is available and in the same class of service in which the ticket was booked. Only the ticketing agent can provide this information. Participants are subject to agency and airline-imposed change fees and space availability. Group round-trip ground transportation to and from the airports in Europe is on the regularly scheduled program dates only.

AIFS cannot guarantee that all passengers will be booked on the same flight.

I understand that if I am not a U.S. citizen, a visa may be required for entry to the countries I plan to visit (or travel through) while a participant on this program. I further understand that it is my sole responsibility to determine my visa requirements and obtain the appropriate visa(s), and I agree to hold the Institute harmless in the event that I am unable to obtain the necessary documents and visas for participation in the program and to indemnify the Institute for any costs to it that result from my failure to obtain the required documentation.

I understand that from time to time the Institute’s publicity material may include statements by its participants and/or their photographs and/or video images, and I consent to such use of my comments and photographic likeness.

DAYTRIPS

Daytrips are typically chosen from the following list:

Oxford

Oxford, most famous for being the home of Britain’s oldest university, spent some time in the twelfth century as the royal residence. Students were first attracted to the town during the reign of Henry I - the “Scholar King.” The University is split into colleges, many of which were first established by rich bishops. Oxford maintains its academic record today – one college alone has produced 13 prime ministers – with graduates including Sir Walter Raleigh, Oscar Wilde and Bill Clinton. This daytrip includes entrance to one of the Oxford University colleges, usually Christchurch College, where some of the Harry Potter filming has taken place.

Stonehenge and Salisbury

Stonehenge is probably one of the most important prehistoric monuments in Britain and one of the most famous World Heritage Sites worldwide. The tour also includes a visit to the magnificent Salisbury Cathedral, which has the highest spire in Britain. Travel is by coach and includes entrance to Stonehenge and Salisbury Cathedral.

Bath

An opportunity to visit this beautiful “spa” town, where Jane Austen wrote Persuasion and Northanger Abbey, Gainsborough established himself as a portraitist and landscape painter, and the city’s elegant crescents and Georgian buildings are studded with plaques naming the various eminent inhabitants from its heyday. Today, Bath ranks as one of Britain’s top ten tourist cities, yet the place has never lost the exclusive air that its famous inhabitants evoke. The architecture and pristine condition of the city make it one of the most beautiful in England, and a real must-see. This daytrip includes entrance to the famous Roman Baths.

Brighton

Brighton is deservedly Britain’s number one seaside town – a fascinating mix of seediness and sophistication. It’s the perfect choice for day trippers from London, with great shopping, the infamous Palace Pier with its palace of fun - the place to be seen sticking your head in a cardboard cut-out of Prince Charles, and the best place to buy sticks of famous Brighton rock candy – and The Lanes, a maze of narrow alleyways crammed with antiques, jewelry and fashionable clothes shops. Brighton literally jumps with pubs, bars, clubs and good-value eating places. Entrance to the Royal Pavilion is included.
Stratford-Upon-Avon

No one can visit England without making the journey north to Stratford. Stratford-Upon-Avon is perhaps an unremarkable market town. The charter for its weekly market was granted in the twelfth century and still exists today. Essentially, Stratford was a stopping-off place for stage-coaches traveling between London, Oxford and the north. The town probably would have disappeared into little-known obscurity if it weren’t for the fact that John and Mary Shakespeare’s first son, William, turned out to be the most celebrated writer in the English language. The daytrip visits Shakespeare’s Birthplace.

THEATER

The theater offerings depend upon the current London theater scene but always include a combination of musicals, drama and comedy. Typical examples are:

* Phantom of the Opera*
* Hamlet at Shakespeare’s Globe outdoor theatre*
* Billy Elliot*
* Wicked*
* Avenue Q*
* Warhorse*
* The Woman in Black*
* An opera or ballet*

SPORTING EVENTS/WALKING TOURS

The program usually includes a ticket to a rugby game or football match (that’s soccer to you!) plus a walking tour of Jack the Ripper’s haunts.
