Interested in becoming a community-supported agriculture shareholder? As a CSA shareholder, you make a commitment to help support a farm by prepaying for a share in their weekly harvest. At Seeds@City, we'll have your CSA share ready for you to pick up every Thursday morning between 9:30-11am. Our CSA shares ($20/week subscription) contain organic vegetables, fruit, herbs and flowers grown here on campus and picked that morning by City College students, staff, and faculty.

Sky of Red Poppies was a One Book, One San Diego selection in 2012. Previously a pediatric dentist also teaching at Northwestern University Dental School, she moved to San Diego in 2000 to devote herself to writing. Since then, over 200 of her essays, short stories, and vignettes have appeared in magazines and online. A bilingual, Iranian-American author, her first book, The Commiserator, was published in her native Persian language Ghahremani has contributed to several anthologies, including Tremors, a compilation of works by Iranian-American writers. She is also a columnist for Zan Magazine, a quarterly publication for women.

Wednesday, May 15
2013 City Works Literary Journal
2:45 p.m. - 3:45 p.m.
MS Corporate Ed Auditorium

Come celebrate the release of our college’s literary journal featuring poetry, fiction, photography, art work, and creative non-fiction. Students, staff, faculty writers and artists serve as the editorial board and assist with the production of the journal. In addition to publications, this event features awards in various categories. Each year, the journal reveals the promise and talent of our writers, many of whom are published for the first time or whose subsequent works became new books. The MS Corporate Ed Auditorium is on C and 16th Streets; enter on C Street. Information: vescalan@sdccd.edu
