City College Annual Book Sale

The Book Sale was moved from Tuesday, April 16, 2013 to Wednesday, April 24, 2013, due to a change in the weather. Time, location, etc. has not changed. The Library/LRC will conduct the annual book sale of used books in Gorton Quad from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

All are invited to shop for literary “gems” and all kinds of books donated by the faculty/staff. It is an inexpensive way to obtain that book you have wanted to find and purchase. For more information please contact, Don Long at x3265 or dlong@sdccd.edu. (Long)

The City College International Book Fair presents the 2013 Spring Literary Series featuring:

Zoreh Gharamani
Sky of Red Poppies and the Moon Daughter
Monday, May 8 2:45 p.m. - 3:45 p.m. MS Corporate Ed Auditorium

Zoreh Gharamani is the author of Sky of Red Poppies which has become a course text in our English classes. Her new book, The Moon Daughter, is due for release this spring. Sky of Red Poppies was a One Book, One San Diego selection in 2012. Previously a pediatric dentist also teaching at Northwestern University Dental School, she moved to San Diego in 2000 to devote herself to writing. Since then, over 200 of her essays, short stories, and vignettes have appeared in magazines and online. A bilingual, Iranian American author, her first book, The Commiserator, was published in her native Persian language Gharemani has contributed to several anthologies, including Tremors, a compilation of works by Iranian-American writers. She is also a columnist for Zan Magazine, a quarterly publication for women.

Wednesday, May 15
2013 City Works Literary Journal
2:45 p.m. - 3:45 p.m. MS Corporate Ed Auditorium

Come celebrate the release of our college’s literary journal featuring poetry, fiction, photography, art work, and creative non-fiction. Students, staff, faculty writers and artists serve as the editorial board and assist with the production of the journal. In addition to publications, this event features awards in various categories. Each year, the journal reveals the promise and talent of our writers, many of whom are published for the first time or whose subsequent works became new books. The MS Corporate Ed Auditorium is on C and 16th Streets; enter on C Street. Information: vescaulan@sdccd.edu
PAUL OKIMOTO

Paul Okimoto’s story of world travels is inextricably linked to the rebellion of his father, Tameichi, who refused to follow in the footsteps of his uncle, a high ranking general in the Japanese Army. Tamechi’s determination to study despite extreme poverty nearly led to his death from tuberculosis.

A Christian missionary nursed him back to health and persuaded him to enter the ministry. He accepted a church post in San Diego, California shortly before the outbreak of world war two - the seminal decision of his life. The irony of the decision to emigrate to the USA: his family of four children and wife was sent to an internment center at the outbreak of WW II, an event that Tameichi never learned to accept as just.
