SAN DIEGO CITY COLLEGE FOUNDATION
Justin Dean Midlam Memorial Scholarship
2010-2011 Application

A Little History:
This scholarship has been established in Justin’s memory with contributions from family, friends, co-workers, classmates, local businesses and the community. Justin Dean Midlam was a hard-working, cheerful, well-liked, ambitious young man working full-time to support himself. He was a full-time student at San Diego City College at the time of his untimely death in March, 2010. He was taking classes in Biotechnology and was very passionate about his studies and excited about his future career opportunities.

NOTE: The District and College provide notice of all student scholarship opportunities made known to them regardless of the qualifications which the entities offering the scholarships may attach to the scholarships. The District and College do not discriminate or grant preferential treatment on the basis of color, race, gender, ethnicity, or national origin in their public education programs.
Tsvetomir Petrov is hereby pledging initial funds to create such scholarship. (I’d prefer to remain anonymous in any public announcement – above description is sufficient). Donor hereby kindly requests annual report of funds remaining and awards disbursed from scholarship account and notification of award ceremony time/location, if applicable, via e-mail at mailto:tpetrov@alum.mit.edu. Donor’s desire is that scholarship fund donations are accounted for separately, that additional contributions to the scholarship fund are possible and that the funds last for a substantial time. Donor desires that investment income and individual gifts smaller than $500 are aggregated and distributed as additional awards to more recipients whenever they exceed $500, while gifts larger than $1,000 are added to principal and prolong the life of scholarship.

Number of awards: 20 (including employer matching contribution; at rate of 1 per semester funds should last for 10 years)
Amount of each award: $500.00 per semester ((for two consecutive semesters)
Recipients are eligible to reapply for this scholarship.

The San Diego City College Foundation reserves all rights to modify any and all terms and to use any of the donated funds in a manner consistent with its charitable purpose.
