B. High School Completion Status

Provide one of the following documents that verifies your high school completion status for the 2013–2014 school year:

- A copy of your high school diploma.
- A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of your General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree.
- If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, contact the financial aid office.

C. Certification and Signature

By signing this form I certify that I have a high school diploma, GED or equivalent and I have provided a copy for verification.

The student must sign and date this form in person at the Financial Aid Office.
