A Little History:

This scholarship has been established in Justin’s memory with contributions from family, friends, co-workers, classmates, local businesses and the community. Justin Dean Midlam was a hard-working, cheerful, well-liked, ambitious young man working full-time to support himself. He was a full-time student at San Diego City College at the time of his untimely death in March, 2010. He was taking classes in Biotechnology and was very passionate about his studies and excited about his future career opportunities.
