SAFETY PLANNING

Taking time to think about steps to increase your safety and the safety of your children is important, whether you have left, are considering leaving, or are currently in an abusive relationship. You may call a domestic violence advocacy agency to assist you in safety planning.

Call (800) 799-SAFE (800-799-7233) to speak with a confidential advocate or to be referred to an agency that specializes in domestic violence. You may also contact the Domestic Violence Service hotlines listed in the top section on Page 1. The National DV Hotline’s website for safety planning ideas and steps for internet safety: http://www.thenhotline.org/help/path-to-safety/

JAIL & PRISON NOTIFICATION

Inmates may be released at any time of the day. You may register an email address and/or telephone number(s) with VINE (“Victim Information and Notification Everyday”) in order to be notified when an inmate is to be released, is pending release, or when they are to be transferred to a facility in another county or state prison. Call VINE toll-free at (877) 411-5588 or visit http://www.sdsheriff.net/victims to register online for this notification.

You may also visit “Who’s in Jail” to see current custody status http://apps.sdsheriff.net/wij/wij.aspx.

The San Diego County District Attorney’s Office offers an online resource providing information about a defendant’s pending court appearance: http://www.sdcda.org/case/index.php

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SHELTERS

There are shelters in San Diego County specifically geared to assisting domestic violence victims. In addition to housing and accommodations, most provide such services as support and information, legal assistance, and counseling. To contact Domestic Violence Services and Shelters, see that section of this guide for current shelter hotline numbers.

ORDERING POLICE REPORT(S)

Domestic Violence victims have a right to one free copy of their police report. Contact the responding law enforcement agency in the jurisdiction in which the incident occurred. Requests for reports can be made to most jurisdictions through the mail or in-person. The following information is necessary to request a report copy: name of the parties involved, date and location of incident, and the report number if available. Bring identification if you go in-person to pick up your report.

SAFE AT HOME – CONFIDENTIAL MAILING ADDRESS

Program participants are provided a confidential mailing address, at no cost, so that may use this instead of their home address. This mail forwarding program allows participants to safeguard their address when receiving first-class mail, opening a bank account, completing a confidential name change, filling out government documents, registering to vote, getting a driver’s license, enrolling a child in school, and more. You may call toll-free at (877) 322-5227 or visit http://www.sos.ca.gov/safeathome/applicants-participants.htm for information and a local enrolling agency.

RESTRAINING ORDERS

You can file for a restraining order at no cost. There are also no cost domestic violence clinics available to assist you in the application process. For a list of updated TRO Clinics and Family Law Facilitators locations and hours visit following website: www.sdcourt.ca.gov and select the “Family” tab and then select “Domestic Violence.” You may also visit www.sdsheriff.net/DV for more information on seeking a restraining order.

Arrive a minimum of two hours before the clinic closes. Be prepared to spend a minimum of one-half of a day to a full day at the court to obtain your restraining order. Space is limited at child care facilities at each court house. You are encouraged to make other child care arrangements.

Things to bring with you when you complete your paperwork, if available: The address for the person you would like restrained; date of birth for the person you would like restrained; physical description of the person you would like restrained; photographs of any injuries (if applicable); and a copy of the police report(s) if any.
