San Diego City College is proud to celebrate V-Day 2011!

V-Day is a global movement to end violence against women and girls. It raises funds and awareness through benefit productions of playwright/founder Eve Ensler’s remarkable play The Vagina Monologues and other artistic works.

We produced this play last year to a standing room only audience, raising almost $4500 which was donated to The Center for Community Solutions and V-Day 2010 Spotlight on Women of Democratic Republic of Congo.

This year, the City College production of The Vagina Monologues will be February 18 and 19 at 8:00 in the Saville Theatre. This year we'll be donating 10% of the proceeds to Spotlight on Women of Haiti. The remaining 90% will be going to the scholarship fund for Crystal, the daughter of City College student Diana Gonzalez.

The performance this year is in Diana's memory.

Auditions for The Vagina Monologues will be Wednesday, Dec. 8 and Thursday, Dec. 9 from 3:30 – 5:00 in C-211. No previous acting experience is necessary, although only women may perform in the play. If you would information about the auditions, please contact Katie Rodda at krodda@sdccd.edu.

We encourage everyone (male and female!) from the City College community to be a part of V-Day 2011.

Thank you,
